Prerequisites

Students must be enrolled in the Bachelor of Health Science Program.

Course Overview

This course presents an overview of ethical and legal issues that can arise in the health care industry. You will have the opportunity to acquire foundational knowledge of bioethical principles and health law. As part of the course, you will critically analyze a variety of health care scenarios presenting ethical and legal challenges, providing practice in ethical decision making and realistic knowledge of the complex nature of applied ethics in the health care environment.

Course Objectives and/or Goals

During this class, students will:

1. Describe the core bioethical principles.
2. Describe various sources of law in the United States and how they impact ethical decision making in health environments.
3. Identify potential ethical dilemmas associated with contemporary health care issues.
4. Apply an ethical decision-making model to address ethical dilemmas.
5. Integrate, compare, and articulate multiple perspectives of ethical dilemmas and potential resolutions.
6. Demonstrate supportive, constructive feedback to other students and during self-evaluation.

Blended Learning

What is blended learning and why is it important?

A Blended Learning class uses a mixture of technology and face-to-face instruction to help you maximize your learning. Knowledge content that, as the instructor, I would have traditionally presented during a live class lecture is instead provided online before the live class takes place. This lets me focus my face-to-face teaching on course activities designed to help you strengthen higher order thinking skills such as critical thinking, problem solving, and collaboration. Competency in these skills is critical for today's health professionals.

What is expected of you?

You are expected to actively engage in the course throughout the semester. You must come to class prepared by completing all out-of-class assignments. Part of active participation in this class is working with your group outside of class each week. As a reminder, this is a 3-credit course – for every 1 credit you spend live in class and/or reading/consuming video module content in canvas, the expectation is that you will spend 2 hours preparing for class. In other words, for a 3-credit hour course, on average, a student would spend 6 hours a week to adequately study and prepare for class. This preparation gives you the knowledge or practice needed to engage in higher levels of learning during the live class sessions. If you are not prepared for the face-to-face sessions, you may struggle to keep pace with the activities occurring in the live sessions, and it is unlikely that you will reach the higher learning goals of the course. Similarly, you are expected to actively participate in the live class debates. Your participation fosters a rich course experience for you and your peers which, in turn, facilitates overall mastery of the course objectives.

Required Textbook (e-course)

“LEGAL AND ETHICAL ISSUES FOR HEALTH PROFESSIONALS: AN ONLINE COURSE, FIFTH EDITION”

Required Equipment

Computer, tablet, or smartphone with high speed internet access.

Synchronous Learning Activities

In-person:

This course includes an in-person learning component in the classroom. You will attend the in-person component by coming to the physical classroom on the UF campus as scheduled. If, for any reason, we need to move this class to an online format, we will use Zoom for our class meetings.

Asynchronous Learning Activities:

Pre-work and priming assignments will be provided in the JBL text/course and/or Canvas for all students to complete prior to the synchronous sessions. You are expected to read the assigned textbook material and prepare your group arguments prior to each in person session so that you are fully prepared to engage in the in person learning environment. During the in person, synchronous sessions we will primarily use a structured debate format, along with complementary discussion and lecture if needed. In addition, as a part of the learning activities, you may be asked to interact with your peers using asynchronous technologies (e.g., Google Jamboard, Discussions, FlipGrid, or other apps and technologies that facilitate reflection, collaboration and student-to-student interactions) that can be dispersed over a period of time. Please be flexible!

Instructional Methods

Mandatory Course Requirements

Group Argument Assignments Written

% 50

Group Argument Assignments Participation % 15

Beginning week 4, you will work in groups to complete your assignments. For each weekly assigned scenario, your group will write up arguments supporting two sides of the week's issue. Each assignment will include a basic description outlining two basic "sides" of the issue. Your group will, using the ethical framework, write out an argument supporting side 1 and then side 2. Work together in your groups to decide what you should include within your arguments. Each page should be written as a narrative. You do not need to provide a reference list but please cite anything needed to support your argument. For example, if there is a legal case that would provide precedent for your argument, then include that specific case. The following format is required for the written portion of the assignment.

Acceptable page length is 2-4 pages; use 12 in font in Times New Roman. Double space your assignment but please separate sections using paragraphs. No reference list is needed.

For each weekly participation assignment, your group will cover one part of the ethical argument in the debate we have in class. I will assign your part. Participation will be graded pass/fail.

Get-it-right Quizzes % 15

All quizzes will be taken in in the JBL course. You will have as many attempts as you need to complete the quiz and receive full points prior to the quiz due date noted on the syllabus weekly schedule. Although the quiz is open book, it is strongly recommended that you review the materials prior to attempting the quiz.

CHEATING: PLEASE NOTE THAT ALL QUIZZES SHOULD BE COMPLETED INDIVIDUALLY. COMPLETING QUIZZES WITH ANOTHER STUDENT WILL CONSTITUTE CHEATING, THUS VIOLATING THE STUDENT HONOR CODE. LAST YEAR WE CAUGHT MULTIPLE STUDENTS WHO ATTEMPTED THIS. THERE WILL NOT BE ANY WARNINGS IF THIS OCCURS. STUDENTS WHO ARE CAUGHT CHEATING WILL AUTOMATICALLY BE REFERRED TO THE DEAN OF STUDENTS OFFICE FOR CONSIDERATION OF DISCIPLINARY ACTION.

Midterm % 10

Case Model Presentation % 10

Each group will identify an ethical scenario of their choice. You may search the internet or any other resources to come up with a health-related ethical scenario. Your group is then responsible for writing up the Ethical Decision-Making Model (covered in class). You should cover all the components in the Model. The second part of this assignment is for you as a group to provide an oral presentation of the model during the in-person class. Your presentation should be no longer than 10 minutes and should cover all the components of the model including your final disposition. Students will be assigned a presentation time. The written and oral components are worth 5% each.

Make Up Policy

Students are allowed to make up work only if missed based on UF's excused absence policy (linked within the attendance policy below) or with instructor permission. You must notify Dr. Hanson in advance if you will miss a quiz/exam or project deadline for a planned absence. Failure to provide advance notification for a planned absence will result in a score of zero on that quiz, exam, or assignment. You must notify Dr. Hanson as soon as possible after any unplanned absence to receive a prorated score or to make arrangements for make up activities, which may differ from original assignments/exams. The type of make up for each requirement is strictly determined by Dr. Hanson.

Policy Related to Required Class Attendance

All faculty are bound by the UF policy for excused absences.

For information regarding the UF Attendance Policy see the Registrar website for additional details: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>

Student Expectations

You are expected to attend and participate in all in-person class sessions in order to ensure the integrity of the activities and maximize student learning and engagement. Therefore, Dr. Hanson will not be using remote attendance for any of the group arguments beginning in week 4. The make-up policy will apply to any student who is unable to attend in person class sessions or misses exam or assignment/project deadlines. Students missing in person sessions or any course deadlines without an approved excuse will lose points.

The 3 P's of Student Responsibility for Attendance:

1. Preparation: Be prepared for class! This applies to both the content and having your computer & headset/mic set-up ready to go.
2. Participation: Stay focused. The more you focus and participate the more you learn. Ask questions! You are responsible for your own learning. Attending the synchronous sessions as scheduled and participating in the learning activities in and outside of class will facilitate your ability to succeed in this course.
3. PPE and PHA (Personal Protective Equipment and Public Health Awareness): Follow UF guidelines. Stay home if you are experiencing symptoms, and communicate with Dr. Hanson in as timely a manner as possible about what your situation is. If you are feeling a little snifflly but good enough to come to class, please consider wearing a mask.

Remote and Online Synchronous Sessions:

Occasionally, class sessions may be audio-visually recorded for students in the class to refer back and for enrolled students who are unable to attend live. This is up to the professor's discretion and can be altered at any time. This is done on a case-by-case basis and the professor will cue the class if and when this happens. Students who participate with their camera engaged or utilize a profile image are agreeing to have their video or image recorded. If you are unwilling to consent to have your profile or video image recorded, be sure to keep your camera off and do not use a profile image. Likewise, students who un-mute during class and participate orally are agreeing to have their voices recorded. If you are not willing to consent to have your voice recorded during class, you will need to keep your mute button activated and communicate exclusively using the "chat" feature, which allows students to type questions and comments live. The chat will not be recorded or shared. As in all courses, unauthorized recording and unauthorized sharing of recorded materials is prohibited.

Academic Integrity

Students are expected to act in accordance with the University of Florida policy on academic integrity. As a student at the University of Florida, you have committed yourself to uphold the Honor Code, which includes the following pledge:

“We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.”

You are expected to exhibit behavior consistent with this commitment to the UF academic community, and on all work submitted for credit at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied:

“On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.”

It is your individual responsibility to know and comply with all university policies and procedures regarding academic integrity and the Student Honor Code. Violations of the Honor Code at the University of Florida will not be tolerated. Violations will be reported to the Dean of Students Office for consideration of disciplinary action. For additional information regarding Academic Integrity, please see Student Conduct and Honor Code or the Graduate Student Website for additional details: <https://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/>
<http://gradschool.ufl.edu/students/introduction.html>

Please remember cheating, lying, misrepresentation, or plagiarism in any form is unacceptable and inexcusable behavior.

Online Faculty Course Evaluation Process

Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu>. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/>.

SUPPORT SERVICES

Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

If you require classroom accommodation because of a disability, you must register with the Dean of Students Office <http://www.dso.ufl.edu> within the first week of class. The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation of accommodations to you, which you then give to me as the instructor of the course to receive accommodations. Please make sure you provide this letter to me by the end of the second week of the course. The College is committed to providing reasonable accommodations to assist students in their coursework.
